DECEMBER MEETING MINUTES

Nancy Quick-Brewer

Once again I believe the annual RMWT Christmas party was a great success. There was a great turn out and plenty of delicious food for all, with none left over I might add. I believe this says a lot for the cooks! I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Lee Carter and Mrs. Chuck Burke for their assistance along with all the guys who helped set up and tear down the table and chairs. As many of you possibly noticed, Brad Tallis relieved me of taking the pictures at the party this year! Thank you Brad, it was a nice change! I would also like to thank Dale Kechter for his arranging the use of the clubhouse once again! Thank you to everyone who attended and I hope that each and every one of you had a wonderful holiday season! Best wishes to those few who have been under the knife lately. I hope you heal fast and are rippin and runnin' soon!

Here we have several members and guests enjoying their dinner along with some good conversation.

We had a special guest attend our Christmas party. Alan Lacer from Troy, WI while in Denver demonstrating at the wood working show held at the Merchandise Mart was invited to come up and join us. We were very happy you could join us, and thank you for the micro miniature tops you donated to our club. These will be raffled off at our up coming meeting, with proceeds going into our club treasury.

The tiny tops in the center are tops made and donated by Alan Lacer!

Looks like, Alan Lacer is doing some catching up with Dr. and Mrs. Lee Carter.

We had a wonderful turn out for the instant gallery this year. Here are a few photo's of just some of the beautifully crafted pieces brought in by our members.

We had quite a good turn out of tops this year.

Several of the guests checking out the beautiful turnings on the instant gallery table.

Hey Doug, as hard as you may try, that won't fit into any of the tops categories.

Mixing and mingling is what goes on best at our Christmas party/meetings. I truly hope everyone enjoyed themselves!

David Kahne of Laramie, WY made the cd top and the threaded box top was made by Bill Mangum of Livermore, CO. Nice job guys!

Demo: There was no set demonstration for the December 2001 Christmas party/meeting. There was plenty of eating and socializing going on, along with a great instant gallery and of course the famous Top Wars. Each top winner of the four categories won a $15.00 gift certificate to Loren's Wood Emporium at 618 N.

Garfield in Loveland. The winners were: John Martin, Bill Mangum, Ray Kowrach and David Nittmann. Congratulations guys!

Treasure's Report: Our out going treasurer Mike O'Dell reports that as of 12/10/01 the club had a balance of $4,313.35. Thank you for a job well done in 2001 Mike!

Library: John Reed our librarian had not reported any new information at the time of this publication.

WOOD RAFFLE

Nancy Quick-Brewer

I'm sure that most anyone of you must have a piece of wood, a bottle of glue, a chuck, jaws, anything you want to rid your over burdened workshop of? Bring it to the meeting and put it on our raffle table, and remember your donations help out your club! All monies going into the raffles, either the wood or show and tell raffle, goes into the clubs treasure and is used towards new books and or movies, educational grants, rentals of larger spaces for when we have a well known turner in town and wish to invite the other two front range clubs etc.

2002 DUES ARE DUE

Nancy Quick-Brewer

Once again it is time to pay yearly dues. Dues will remain at the usual $12.00 for students up to 18 years of age and $20.00 for all others. To pay your dues, please contact the club's new treasure Jon Fosse.

A NEW ONEWAY & STEADYREST

Wayne Van Every

Oneway rolled out a new 1224 model at the Mid Ohio Symposium recently. The lathe is an enlarged version of their 1018 model. The new larger model fills a niche between the next size up the 1624. The new 1224 doesn't have the jack shaft that the 1018 has, and has a control that slides along the bed above the work. The model numbers are the diameter and distance between centers.

Oneway 1224

rigid the ring is. It has substantially less steel than one of the traditional designed ones available.

This is a picture of a steady rest for a Oneway 2436 being made by a guy in Oklahoma. The design is unique in that the ring is made from a strap of 3/8" steel. I have not been able to contact him to find out how

RECLAIMED CANADIAN TIMBER

Wayne Van Every

I received the following email and thought I would pass it along. I did visit his Website and looked at some of the wood and prices. He is milling both turning stock and dimensional lumber. If your interested in visiting his website and do not have internet access, you can go to your local library, community college, Kinko's and get on. If that isn't possible, I can print you off the price list for the particular wood you may be interested in.

<My name is Ken Mick. I own a company that recovers sunken timber. Hardwood mostly. Over the past 6 months I have been developing a market for this wood. I would say the best niche that I have found is both hobby carpenters/builders and wood turners. Currently I am working on a Website that will enable people and associations to purchase particular pieces online. The wood that we currently have is being milled into cubes, spindles, and blocks right now. Everything that we pulled out of the rivers in 2000 had been sold by March of 2001. This year we lifted about 4 times the amount of logs, so the supply should be even better. If you or anyone that you know has any interest in turning products please contact me. I have in stock a lot of birch, maple, some cherry, some elm (almost extinct) some very different looking oak and a little black walnut. Also, for carving, some basswood. This wood is anywhere from 10" up to 30" on the log and definitely can be cut down to any dimension, and the prices are in Canadian funds, so with the dollar exchange being about 60 cents on the dollar our American customers get a huge discount. We also ship to the states. The new Website is www.creativehandswood.com

Again I really would like to hear from you.

Thanks in advance,

Ken Mick

BULK GREEN WOOD SEALER PURCHASE

Wayne Van Every

I have shopped around for bulk green wood sealers and come up with a pretty good deal. Presently, a gallon of sealer runs around $17.00 a gallon. The best price I found for a product called Anchor seal Clear from UC Coatings is $6.50 per gallon for a 55-gallon drum, delivered. You can furnish your own containers; bring them to me at a meeting. If you have milk jugs, make sure they have screw on lids. I can furnish containers from Home Depot and can get 3 sizes they cost as follows:

1 gallon (new metal paint can) - $2.96 plus tax
2 gallon (plastic pail with lid) - $3.58 plus tax
5 gallon (plastic pail with lid) - $3.90 plus tax

I need to have commitments for the entire 55 gallons or more; I do not have room to store a partial barrel. This product must be kept from freezing. Call 970/378-8815 leave message or send an email to vaneasy200@aol.com. Orders from Front Range and Pikes Peak Clubs are welcome
