RMWT Christmas Party:

Thanks to Monty Weymouth for the above photos!

Next RMWT Meeting:

The next regular meeting will be on Thursday, January 9, 2014, at the Woodcraft store, 3718 Draft Horse Drive, Loveland, CO and will feature Dave Hawley with a demonstration on "Tips and Tricks". (See additional information below)

RMWT January 9, 2014 Demonstration at Woodcraft, Loveland:

Dave Hawley will present a demonstration titled: "Tips and Tricks": The presentation will cover tips and tricks that Dave has learned over the years from presentations, workshops (most recently the J. Paul Fennell workshop at Anderson Ranch), and Dave's extensive reading/viewing of club Library educational materials. The focus is on sharing information on creative tools and techniques that save time and money - many involving re-purposing of everyday materials. Dave's goal is to open up the thinking of newer turners, but also to ensure that even the most experienced turners come away with some fresh ideas. Dave envisions the presentation as fairly rapid-fire, with use of tools and turning on the lathe to reinforce points made.

Tointon Gallery Reception January 3, 2014:

The gallery coordinator from the Tointon Gallery at the Union Colony Civic Center in Greeley attended the First Friday reception in November for the RMWT exhibit and was just amazed at the diversity and quality of the works. She asked selected RMWT members to deliver their pieces to Greeley for a show in their gallery which runs from December 20 to February 1. Members who were able to deliver their work and are in the exhibit include Vince Wilson, Doug Schneider, Allen Jensen, Kent Krueger, Hoyle Curtis, and Frank and Elizabeth Amigo. There are also amazing works in the show by Greeley wood artists. The reception for the show is this Friday, January 3rd, from 5 to 7PM during Greeley's First Friday Art Walk. Refreshments will be served and there will be a live guitar performance by Ren Merry. There are other galleries in the area to see, coffee houses and pubs, and some great restaurants across from the park at the Tointon Gallery.
